

Ce qui nous concerne_workshop week

From 21st to 24th May

As part of the Ce qui nous concerne project - CQNC

Opening day on 21 May at the Maison de Quartier La Touche

'Ce qui nous concerne' is a research project aimed at making the most of the stories collected from associations, social spaces and collectives in Rennes. Through stories and testimonies, the project seeks to continue the long history of collaboration between the University of Rennes 2 and the third sector. The aim is to map, safeguard and reflect on a socially committed voice.

This first week of workshops, with the help of Zone Atelier Armorique ZAAr and the Brittany Region, is about our relationship with our environment, and the possibility of stories, as Paolo Freire points out, changing words in order to change the world.

We're going to open the corpus on Nakala: <https://nakala.fr/10.34847/nkl.03b6h61y>

In the WorkAdventure online collaborative workspace, we're going to get together and think about the stories behind the project: <https://url-r.fr/pcPVc>

You can sign up here: <https://framadate.org/mce1ljv5VVHw4E8h>

(The Espace des Langues is located in the basement of Bâtiment L, Université Rennes 2. The entrance is next to the Espace des Langues Library (formerly the Médiathèque des Langues).

The Maison de Quartier La Touche is located at 6 rue cardinal Paul Gouyon, 35000 Rennes.